

Bucks Stay On Top With 8-0 Record

After four weeks of play in the Torrance American Little League, the Pirates, managed by Bill Montgomery, were well out in front of the parade, posting an 8-0 record.

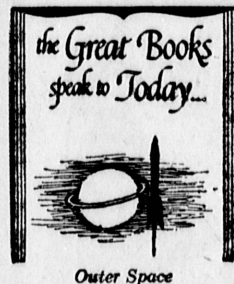

Route-going performances by pitchers Tommy Haslet and Steve Larson have featured the Pirates' drive, each winning four games. Haslet had hurled two consecutive shut-outs. Leading Pirate hitter is Dick Foulk, with .388, followed closely by four other regulars up over the .350 mark.

League's leading home run slugger after four weeks was Charles Cox of the Giants with four, followed by Bobo Webber of the White Sox with three.

In the Minor League, the Dodgers were out in front with a record of 7 and 1, followed by the Tigers with 6 and 1.

With how much greater probability shall we make a conjecture as to God's work and designs even for the other planets, from that variety which we discern on Earth.

—JOHANNES KEPLER (1571-1630)
German astronomer

As one that looks up to the heavens and sees the splendor of the stars thinks of the Maker and searches, so whoever has contemplated the Intellectual Universe and known it and wondered for it must search after its Maker too. What being has raised so noble a fabric? and where? and how?

Roman philosopher

This bright comet, having traveled in its orbit with inconceivable velocity through immeasurable space, seemed suddenly — like an arrow piercing the earth — to remain fixed in a chosen spot, vigorously holding its tall erect, shining and displaying its white light amid countless other scintillating stars.

Bushel-N-Peck After Fourth Win Tuesday

Rex Ellsworth's undefeated Bushel-N-Peck, three-year-old daughter of Khaled and Dama II, will shoot for her fourth win in a row when she goes postward in the $20,000 added Hollywood Oaks at Hollywood Park Tuesday.

The mile and one-eighth race will settle the sophomore filly championship of the Hollywood meeting.

A NON-STARTER at two because she was so small, Bushel-N-Peck won her first start at Santa Anita last winter. Put away until the Hollywood Park meeting, she galloped off with a sensational nine-length win in her first start at the Ingelwood track, going six furlongs in 1:09 flat. In her next outing Bushel-N-Peck was victorious in the $20,000 added Honeymoon Stakes, winning by two lengths in the world's record time of 1:34 4/5 for a three-year-old filly around two turns.

BUSHEL-N-PECK has a two-year-old full brother at Hollywood Park this summer named Eight Ball, who could also become a star.

According to Owner Ellsworth, Eight Ball is "waking up," and he believes the colt is a real threat for the $100,000 added Hollywood Juvenile Championship on July 22. Eight Ball broke his maiden at Santa Anita, but at Hollywood.

Yanks Post 13-6 Win in Pony Action

Action in the Torrance Central Pony League this week saw the Yanks post a 13-6 win over the White Sox in a slugfest that knocked three White Sox pitchers out of the box. Keith Patton recorded the win, while going the route. Patton gave up five hits, and three White Sox pitchers were tagged for ten.

Indian Larry Villa not only went the whole way against the Tigers in action Wednesday, but blasted a home run that proved to be the game winning run as the league leading Indians recorded the victory.

Thursday night Chris Smith pitched a one hitter at the Red Sox and his teammates responded with six hits as the Cards picked up the win. Highlight of the game was a three for four performance at the plate by Card Glen Stienhaus.

wood Park was distanced by Byk and Private World in two overnight races before he came to life with two smashing, fast-closing seconds—one to Mrs. Connie Ring's Private World in the Cabrillo Stakes and the other to the fleet C. V. Whitney colt, Killoqua.

Bushel-N-Peck and Eight Ball have every right to be champion runners. Kaled has sired some great stakes winners, including Swaps, and Dama II is by the famous Dante, winner of the English Derby in 1945.

Harbor City Leagues Begin Summer Play

The Harbor City Little League opened play last week at Perry Field with a slate of one sided games. Action on opening day gave the Phillies a 10-5 win over the Braves with Pat McDowell getting the win.

Later action during the first week of play saw the Dodgers post a 13-0 victory over Phillies and the Giants picked up an 8-5 nod over the Pirates. A replay of the Dodger-Phillie tie-up produced the same results — a 13-0 win for the Dodgers.

Friday afternoon the Cubs got a no-hitter performance out of pitcher Ronnie White while coasting to a 6-1 win over the Braves, and a Saturday game saw the Giants come up with a 5-3 victory over the Pirates.

Rodeo Queen Announced By Sheriff

Shirley MacLaine, who skyrocketed from the chorus of a Broadway musical to Hollywood stardom, has been chosen by Sheriff Peter J. Pritchess to reign as queen of the Sheriff's Rodeo Saturday night, June 24, in the Coliseum.

She joins the greatest all-star cast ever assembled for the western spectacle. Headed by Frank Sinatra, it includes such outstanding entertainers as Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr., and Peter Lawford.

ROUNDING OUT the stellar array is Richard Boone who is serving as grand marshal.

An understudy in the musical, "Pajama Game," Miss MacLaine got her big chance when the star, Carol Haney, fractured her ankle. Winning overnight acclaim, she went on to movie triumphs capped recently by her Academy Award nomination for "The Apartment."

Colorful units participating in the rodeo grand entry, in which the stars also will ride, include the U. S. Marine Corps Color Guard from Camp Pendleton and resplendently garbed horsemen from the following groups:

ARCADIA Mounted Police, Knott's Berry Farm Ghost Patrol, Long Beach Mounted Police, Riverside County Sheriff's Posse, San Fernando Rangers and Santa Monica Mounted Police.

Another attraction at the event will be an exhibition of hitchhikes featuring Cinderella's Pumpkin Coach from Santa's Village driven by six white ponies.

Rodeo tickets may be purchased now at all sheriff's stations and county marshal's office, the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office and the Coliseum.

Ascot Cycle Events Announced

Two major motorcycle events for Ascot Park next month were announced today by J. C. Agajanian, who continues his weekly AMA programs this Friday night, with Neil Keen of Pasadena headlining a field of close to 100 riders.

Coming up at Ascot Monday night, July 3, is another of the spectacular steeplechases under the arcs with Dick Dorresteyn of upstate San Pablo out for revenge on Dick Hammer of Lakewood, who won May 29 before a capacity crowd.

BIG EVENT of July is the eight-mile national championship race Saturday night, July 22, with eastern riders coming to take on the best of the Pacific Coast. This race is one of the major events on the AMA calendar for 1961, and has been awarded Agajanian for the third straight year at Ascot.

Hammer, while rated one of the top steeplechasers of the nation, is also coming into his own in the Friday night excursions on the half-mile Ascot oval.

JACK O'BRIEN of Santa Monica is looking sharper every week, and this Friday night will be out to take over second place in the expert point standings back of the flying Keen.

Among the first-year jockeys, Ron Nelson of Los Angeles has become the new darling of the fans after sweeping the Class B boards the other night, shutting off favored Duane Shadley of Iowa in both the 3-lap trophy dash and 10-lap main event.

Racing Friday night at the 183rd and Vermont plant starts at 8:30 o'clock for the

Destruction Derby Slated

The popular "Destruction Derby" has been scheduled for intermission entertainment at the Ascot Speedway tonight during stock car racing which begins at 7:30. Among local drivers in the intermission event will be Jerry Fauphel, Bill Grijalva, and Cliff Faggot.

16-event card with one-lap qualifying at 7.
